

MOROGORO – MARCH 1956 TO MAY 1958

This is the Coutts family (Mum and Dad - Arthur and Alice, my brother Geoffrey and myself).

When we arrived in Morogoro, there was no Railway house available for us and my mother recalls that we spent a few weeks in the Railway Hotel until we were allocated rented accommodation in a two-storey house which was situated in the foothills of the Blue Uluguru Mountains, was of an Art Deco design and known locally as the "Gin Palace".

I would love to know if the house is still standing.
